The Daily Gazetteer.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14. 1737. №745.

Since our laſt arrived a Mail from Holland, and another from France.

BY the former there are remarkable Advices relating to the Conduct and Fate of ſome of the moſt eminent Officers in the German and Ruſſian Armies.

The laſt Letters from Petersburg, which are of the 17th ult. O. S. ſay, 'That 'the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg was expected there every Day from the Army, in high Diſguſt at the Treatment he has received from the Count de Munich. It is affirmed, 'that this Prince having reſolved to demand his abſolute Diſmiſſion, and being ſure of obtaining it, 'will go into the Service of the Emperor. All the 'Ruſſian Soldiery, and moſt of the Officers and Nobility of the Court, are prodigiouſly concerned to 'part with him: But, it ſeems, his Highneſs is not 'the only Perſon diſſatisfy'd with the Count de Munich.

'The Colonel Berenclaw, who was in the Ruſſian 'Army in Quality of the Emperor's Commiſſary, has 'had a warm Diſpute with the Count; who, 'tis 'ſaid, is intolerably haughty. We are told that this 'Colonel had Orders to inſiſt on the Count's making 'a Diverſion in Favour of the Emperor, after the 'Taking of Oczakow, but the Count always refuſed 'it, on Pretence that Forage would be wanting in 'the Road to Beſſarabia, and that thereby his Cavalry would be expoſed to total Ruin. They add, 'that as the Imperial Colonel was going to confute 'this Argument, the Count de Munich took him up 'very ſhort, by ſaying, Let M. de Seckendorff take 'Widdin, as I have done Oczakow, and then we ſhall 'be on a Par; after which I will conſider what I have 'to do next. 'Tis to be feared, that when theſe two 'Officers, who are to the laſt Degree exaſperated 'againſt one another, come to make their Reports of 'each other's Behaviour to their reſpective Courts, 'it will weaken the good Underſtanding there has 'been hitherto betwixt the Emperor and the Czarina.

'The Preparations making by the Ruſſians for the 'next Campaign are very conſiderable; but 'tis certain that the Continuation of the War will be a 'very great Burden upon them, eſpecially if they act 'offenſively, as it appears they deſign to do, by the 'Augmentation they are making of their Troops: 'Whereas if they could content themſelves to be 'only on the Defenſive, they need not be at ſo vaſt 'an Expence; nor would they have Reaſon to fear 'that the Turks will come to attack them at their 'own Doors, ſince ſuch a March would be even 'more difficult for them than it was for the Ruſſians.'

The laſt Advices from the Count de Munich ſay, that he has received poſitive Intelligence that the Tartars were preparing to invade the Ukraine again next Winter; but that he has made all the neceſſary Diſpoſitions to give them as warm a Reception as they had laſt Year. Mean time he has fixed his Head-Quarters at Pultowa: The Prince of Heſſe-Hombourg has his at Czernichow; Lieutenant General Keith at Lubnacz, and the Major General Biron at Kiow.

The Letters from Poland of the 9th ult. O. S. ſay, the Turks, who are aſſembled in great Numbers about Bender, have received Orders to march forthwith to Oczakow, and to endeavour to retake it.

Thoſe from Petersburg add, that the Czarina having a Mind to ſee the Seraskier Baſhaw of Oczakow, who was taken Priſoner at the Conqueſt of that Place, and whoſe Life was ſaved by the Adjutant General the Count de Biron, ſent an Order to the ſaid General to bring him to Court; and that the Count, who ſet out with him accordingly from the Army, is arrived at Petersburg, having left the Seraskier at Novogrod, from whence he was expected every Day at Petersburg.

We are next to give an Account of the Fate of the Velt-Marſhal de Seckendorff, who, ſo far from having the Honour of paying his Reſpects to the Emperor, as was expected, has felt the Weight of his Imperial Majeſty's Diſpleaſure.

The Particulars that are hitherto tranſmitted of it, are contained in the Letters from Vienna, of the 26th of laſt Month, O. S. as follows.

'The Velt-Marſhal had not been arrived here 'many Days, before the Aulick Council of War 'ſent him a written Paper, containing certain Arti'cles, to each of which his Imperial Majeſty en'joyn'd him to anſwer categorically. The Anſwer 'he gave in Obedience to this Order, being not 'thought ſufficient, the Council ſent him Word, by 'the Emperor's Command, That 'twas his Imperial 'Majeſty's Will and Pleaſure, that he ſhould confine 'himſelf a Priſoner to his own Houſe. The Count de 'Seckendorff received this Order with very great 'Reſpect and Calmneſs. On Sunday the 23d of 'October, at 4 o'Clock in the Afternoon, there was 'a Grand Council of War at the Palace, preſent his 'Imperial Majeſty, wherein it was judg'd neceſſary 'to take more effectual Meaſures for ſecuring the 'Perſon of the Count de Seckendorff. At the Break'ing up of this Council, which held 3 Hours, the 'Major of the Town, attended by a Captain, 12 'Soldiers or Fuſileers, 2 Captains, and an Exempt, 'went to the Count's Hotel, and having ſecured the 'Gates, and Avenues of all the Apartments, he ſig'nify'd to the General, That it was the Emperor's 'Command, and Sovereign Will and Pleaſure, that he 'ſhould not only continue under Arreſt at his own Houſe, 'but that he ſhould alſo have a Guard placed upon him 'in his Chamber, and not be allowed to ſpeak with any 'Body, but in the Preſence of his Keeper. The Count 'de Seckendorff made Anſwer, I told what I have by 'his Imperial Majeſty's Courteſy, and to him am I 'obliged for every Thing: He has a Right to diſpoſe of 'my Liberty, my Life, and all that I poſſeſs.* The 'Major of the Town, before he went away, ſtep'd 'to the Counteſs of Seckendorff, and told her, That 'ſhe was free to keep the Count her Husband Company, if 'ſhe deſired it; but that the Emperor expected it ſhould be 'only on Condition that ſhe ſhould not ſtir out of the Cham'ber where he was confined.* The Lady conſented to become her Husband's Fellow-Priſoner.

'Beſides the Officer that is poſted as a Guard over 'the Count in his Chamber, there are in the Anti'Chamber next to that Apartment 3 Soldiers, who 'ſtand Centry with Bayonets at the End of their 'Muskets. His Secretary and his Valet de Chambre 'are guarded each by a Couple of Soldiers; and 'there is a ſtrict Injunction left, to admit no Perſons 'whatſoever to the Count or Counteſs, and even not 'ſo much as their Relations.

'The principal Commiſſioners whom the Emperor 'has appointed to inquire into this General's Con'duct, are the Velt-Marſhals the Count de Konig'ſegg, and the Count de Palfi (the latter of whom 'was nominated at firſt for the Command of the 'Imperial Army in Hungary) the Count Jorger, 'and the Count Oliver de Wallis.

'Tho' the Count had been 4 Days under Arreſt, 'when the Letters came away, it did not appear that 'he made the leaſt Murmuring, and only ſaid, That 'he has nothing to reproach himſelf for; and that if the 'Reaſons he has to offer in his Defenſe, come to his Im'perial Majeſty's Knowledge, he flatters himſelf that he 'will no longer think him guilty.* Mean Time, the 'well-known Equity of the Emperor, and of the 'Aulick Council, and the Abilities of the Members 'who compoſe that Tribunal, leave no Room to 'doubt but all due Regard will be had to the Validity of the Arguments which that General has to 'urge in his Juſtification.'

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible Cure in the Univerſe for the VENEREAL DISEASE, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant VIRUS, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and ſo as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicts on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet or Weakneſs to happen on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with Nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breakings out, and all the other moſt exaſperated Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this ſome Thouſands have to their great Joy experienc'd.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſh'd, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury, may, by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and moſt effectual Manner.

All ſuch likewiſe as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doſes of it entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all ſcorbutick, ſcrophulous, and even leproſe Eruptions or Foulneſſes of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe, than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this moſt Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value, and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAYNER's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which, all Perſons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe, may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
